Schley then agreed to go to Texas and appear in the divorce action so his wife could get her decree. The New York action was dropped.

Young Schley is well known in so-ciety. His marriage to Miss Norma M. Cliff ten years ago was a fomantic affair. For several years the young couple lived happily in their handsome apartment at No. 307 West Seventy-ninth street. Then two years ago they separated and in her divorce action Mrs. Schley charged cruel treatment and non-support. Since their separation Schley has lived in hotels and country clubs. ### DANIEL F. COHALAN Candidate for Supreme Court

The Judiciary Committee of The Association of the Bar of the City of New York reported at a special meeting of the Association that they had carefully observed the administration of justice by Mr. Justice Cohalan since his appointment by the Governor, and in its opinion he had "served with credit and deserved commendation, and that his nomination should have the endorsement of the Association. The Association thereupon unanimously resolved that Mr. Justice Cohalan had served with credit and shown that he is qualified for judicial office and that he is entitled to the approval and endorsement of the Association."

We, the undersigned members of the Bar, endorse the candidacy of the Hon. Daniel F. Cohalan for Justice of the Supreme Court. In character, natural ability and professional experience and attainments he is well qualified for the office, and in our judgment is worthy of public support and confidence.
